

Sacred Rhythms: The Moon is Waxing—Answer the Call of Your Own Fire

Waxing Moon: 4/18/26 to 4/30/26

What is one aligned action—bold or simple, energetic or physical—that your inner knowing is calling you toward, in order to honor the commitments you made to yourself at the New Moon?

Greetings Magick Maker,

At the New Moon in Aries, we were called into our fire.

We were invited to stop saving our boldest dreams for someday, to stop playing small in the name of safety, and to plant the seeds of our most courageous, soul-level intentions—the ones that are unmistakably ours, even if they don't fit neatly into the life we were told to want or that we are currently living.

And now, as the Moon's light begins to grow and build, we are being asked to boldly step into the Waxing phase—a time of aligned action, tending, and nurturing what we have committed to.

Aries energy does not do well with waiting. And yet, this is not an invitation to rush, to force, or to bulldoze your way toward your intentions. Because the fire of Aries, at its highest and most sovereign expression, is not reckless. It is purposeful. It is discerning. It moves when it knows it is time to move, and it trusts that knowing completely.

That is the invitation of this Waxing Moon.

To move—purposefully—in the direction of what you declared at the New Moon.

You've got this!

And, as you move through this Waxing phase, here is my gentle reminder to you—the Universe will meet you at the depth at which you are willing to meet yourself. The more honestly and boldly you invest your energy, attention, and action in the intentions you set at the New Moon—the more powerfully the right conditions and seemingly synchronistic opportunities will show up for them to be made manifest.

Please understand that the pathway forward, will not always look the way you expect. And there might be times when things feel uncertain or the actions you take don't produce immediate, visible results. Trust yourself and the process anyway.

You are not doing it wrong. You are simply in the sacred, necessary, unglamorous messy middle—and that middle is where all transformation actually happens.

Tend what you planted, my friend. Show up for your intentions with the same fire and the same tenderness you brought to planting them. Answer the call of your own knowing.

Your dreams are not waiting for the perfect moment.

They are waiting for you.

Sending you lots of love and magick,
Kim 💜

PS: Remember, there's no pressure here—only rhythm and flow. My hope is that Sacred Rhythms continues to be a gentle guide, helping you move through each phase with more trust, more ease, and more alignment.

I'd love to hear what seeds you planted at the Aries New Moon and what aligned action is calling to you during this Waxing phase. Hit reply and let me know—your journey is important to me and I do read every message. 💜
